More about LINCC

LINCC is a web-based community platform that brings community resources together through one portal, providing data, knowledge and interactive tools for effective collaboration between nonprofits, government, funders and other stakeholders. LINCC provides information on nonprofit organizations in this region to assist grant makers, service providers and those wishing to volunteer, contribute, and or work with organizations and others dedicated to improving the quality of life in North Louisiana. LINCC was created through a partnership of The Community Foundation and the Louisiana Association of Nonprofit Organizations (LANO).

The LSUS University Center Ballroom is located on the main campus of LSU-Shreveport (physically located at 8515 Youree Drive in Shreveport, Louisiana) in the University Center on the second floor, Room 205.
